

KAMERO1

Singel 416, 1016 AK Amsterdam, The Netherlands.
 Tel: 0031 654 776151. www.kamer01.nl
 Expect to pay from around £200 per room per night
 (two-night stay minimum).

Written by Daniel May

Breakfast area

Front of Kamer01

Don't be put off by the name... Kamer01 means 'room one' in Dutch, a nod to the fact that this boutique bed and breakfast only has two available guest rooms, guaranteeing an unrivalled personal experience. Impeccably run by attentive duo Peter and Wolter (and Tommie, the Beagle), nothing is too much trouble... The pair pride themselves on spoiling their guests with a satisfying five-course organic breakfast each morning, with all ingredients sourced locally.

Nestling in a beautiful heritage building, which dates back to 1585, the two spacious rooms – so called the 'Red Room' and the 'Blue Room' – both enjoy spectacular views over the picturesque Singel Canal. Each meticulously thought-out by ardent interior designer Peter, they feature en suite marble bathrooms, stylish sleeping areas (the Blue Room has a unique circular bed!) and cosy lounge – perfect for resting your weary feet after a full day of sightseeing. Voted by Trip Advisor as Traveller's Choice 2013: Top 25 B&Bs and Inns in Europe, location is one of the keys to Kamer01's charm. Set perfectly in the heart of Amsterdam, it's within easy walking distance of all main attractions including museums, Rembrandt Square, the flower market, fashion boutiques and, of course, the remarkable Anne Frank House (an absolute must-visit!). Perhaps you'd rather chill out and unwind with an authentic cappuccino in hand? Why not grab a seat at one of the welcoming local café bars and indulge in a spot of people watching?

In keeping with the city vibe of the bedrooms, the finely assembled dining area also grants wonderful views over the canal. After a five-star breakfast, make the most of a leisurely chat with your hosts, both a fountain of knowledge when it comes to Amsterdam. They'll be able to answer all your questions on what to do, where to go, and what to see before you head home. And if you need any assistance with making a reservation for dinner, they'll be only too happy to oblige.

“NESTLING IN A BEAUTIFUL HERITAGE BUILDING, WHICH DATES BACK TO 1585, THE TWO SPACIOUS ROOMS – SO CALLED THE 'RED ROOM' AND THE 'BLUE ROOM' – BOTH ENJOY SPECTACULAR VIEWS OVER THE PICTURESQUE SIGNAL CANAL.”

Departing daily to Amsterdam from Norwich International Airport, a break in the Dutch capital is easier than ever before. So, if you're interested in architecture, culture, history and dining, be sure to plan a visit soon – and make the iconic Kamer01 boutique bed and breakfast your base during your stay.

Blue room

Red room

En suite bathroom

sitting/working area