BEING ELMO

Written by Sam Leonard

@cinemacitynrw

Beloved by millions of children around the world, Elmo is an international icon. However, few people know the soft-spoken man behind the furry red monster, Kevin Clash.

Narrated by Whoopi Goldberg, Being Elmo: A Puppeteer's Journey follows Clash's remarkable career, while also offering a behind-the-scenes look at Sesame Street and the Jim Henson Workshop.

As a teenager growing up in Baltimore in the 1970s, Clash had very different aspirations from his class-mates – he wanted to be part of Henson's team, the creative force responsible for delivering the magic of Sesame Street to our screens. With a supportive family behind him, Kevin made his dreams come true.

Featuring interviews with Frank Oz, Rosie O'Donnell, Cheryl Henson, Joan Ganz Cooney and Clash himself, film-maker Constance Marks' insightful and personal documentary tells the story of one of the world's most adored and recognizable characters in television.

Being Elmo (PG) screens at Cinema City, Norwich on Tuesday 1st May at 6.15pm.

When you think of the Maldives, what comes to mind? Beautiful beaches, clear water, paradise? Well, this documentary will certainly educate you on the daily struggle this country faces behind its heavenly facade.

The Island President centres on Mohammed Nasheed, ex-president of the Maldives, and his efforts to bring worldwide attention to the threat of rising sea levels caused by climate change.

With astonishing access to the man and his day-to-day crusade to save his people, maverick film-maker Jon Shenk provides an exceptional insight into the unbelievable events of Nasheed's life that led him to take up position as 'The Island President', as well as the science behind the story.

If you enjoy documentaries that are based on history, the environment and humanity, this is certainly one not to be missed.
