Planning a weekend break in the most romantic city in the world? If that sounds like heaven to you, then why not make Paris' newest boutique hotel your Parisian residence? The five-star Le Roch Hotel & Spa is the brainchild of experienced architect Vincent Bastie and the extremely talented Sarah Lavoine, who has flawlessly incorporated a touch of French elegance into the hotel's interiors, from the chic and stylish colour palette, to the eye-catching specially-designed furniture.

Located in Rue Saint Roch within the first arrondissement, and housed within a heritage structure that dates back to the 19th century, Le Roch is only a short walk from Paris' famous museums including The Louvre and Musée d'Orsay. Be inspired to take a tour of the city's stunning architecture and admire the world-renowned Palais Garnier Paris Opera House, which is only a 10-minute stroll away.

If less sightseeing and more designer shopping sounds good, then you'll love being in the heart of Paris' exclusive fashion houses. Rue Saint-Honoré is just around the corner, home to Givenchy, John Galliano and Jimmy Choo, no less! Spend the afternoon window-shopping in Place Vendôme, stop for a coffee and a spot of celebrity spotting, or treat your loved one to a special gift in one of the city's gorgeous boutiques! The options are endless...

And it's not just location that this exclusive hideaway delivers on! All of the 37 rooms, including the four indulgence suites, are expertly decorated, thanks to Lavoine's customary je ne sais quoi. Each benefits from an abundance of natural light, king-sized beds, modern furniture, impressive TVs, and super-spacious bathrooms complete with separate rain-showers and amazing bathtubs (big enough for two to share!), so you can relax and unwind after a busy day on your feet.

The first arrondissement hosts a multitude of culinary establishments, but you don't need to leave the hotel to enjoy some of Paris' most exquisite food and drink... Le Roch boasts a menu devised by the young 2-star Michelin chef, Arnaud Faye. Delight in a romantic dinner in the hotel's atmospheric restaurant, or post-supper cocktails on the sunlit terrace, perhaps?

If you can drag yourself out of the comfort of your room, head down for an authentically French breakfast – the croissants are to die for! What better way to start your day?

Plus, if some R&R is on your wish-list, be sure to take advantage of the hotel's tranquil spa, which comprises a hammam, fitness room and bijou swimming pool, as well as a tailored list of treatments. We can highly recommend the Soin Travel Detox... A must for every weary traveller!

Uniting first-class location with five-star sophistication, Le Roch is the perfect base for any Paris trip, whether discovering the French capital, or revisiting for the hundredth time!
